

Journal of the Moving Image

No.1. Autumn, 1999

Moinak Biswas	1	Bengali Film Debates: The Literary Liaison Revisited
S. V. Srinivas	14	Gandhian Nationalism and Melodrama in the 30's Telugu Cinema
M. Madhava Prasad	37	Cine-Politics: On the Political Significance of Cinema in South India
Ajanta Sircar	53	An 'Other' Road to an 'Other' Ray
Ashish Rajadhyaksha	68	'You Can See Without Looking': Reconsidering Freedom of Expression in the Cinema
Tejaswini Niranjana	91	Questions for Feminist Film Studies

NOTES

Meheli Sen	102	Three Women Lost to Time: A Brief Note on Ghatak's Heroines
Subhajit Chatterjee	106	Film in Cultural Space: A Study of English, August
Nandana Bose	112	Dahan as an Exploration of Sexual Politics

REVIEW

Ravi S. Vasudevan	117	Ideology of the Hindi Film: A Historical Construction
--------------------------	------------	--